Notes from the President.....

Wow, I say! We have just played 2 challenging golf courses at both of the tournaments in September. Cottonwood Hills near Hutchinson was fun but had its challenges. And then after going over “hill and dale” at Eagle Creek in Missouri this past weekend, it felt really nice to be playing on the flatland at Clapp this morning. Eagle Creek can really take the wind out of your sails both mentally and physically! Though there were a few who were able to maintain their superb level of golfing expertise, most of us just had to endure seeing those rising scores and hope for a better day. Oh well, we’re only human and golf is golf, as they say. There’s always another day of golfing and one in which we hope to prevail – well, we can always hope!

COTTONWOOD HILLS WINNERS

The three person teams were identified by the Olympic Ring Colors (Yellow, Black, Green, Blue and Red.) The ‘insightful’ planners of this tournament decided to have a scramble format. Seems they had previously played this course and thought that might be a good idea this time. After playing in this tournament, I think they made a wise decision!! But it was fun --- and challenging!

Team	Members	Gross	Net
Green	Jennifer, Cheryl, Peggy	83 (1st)	68.7

From the Handicap Chair.....

All of the KWGA Low Net day have been played, the results tallied, and sent to KWGA. All I need now is to receive those coveted medals and award them at the end of year banquet. Who will be the lucky ones this year?! Did I say "lucky"? I meant, who will be the skillful ones to earn them this year. (That does sound better!)

TEAM PLAY

We've had our last Team Play Match for the season. We didn't do as well as we would have liked: Gross points were 265 (11th place) and Net Points 301 (9th place). But we'll be back next year!!! Thanks to all the ladies who played this year -

Continuing Stupid Rules of Golf:

STUPID GOLF RULE 28: BALL UNPLAYABLE

This rule has some great options for the player who realizes she does not have the skills to extricate her ball from its position. One of them, replaying the original shot, is impractical for everyday recreational golf because it requires holding up everyone behind you. The other two allow for dropping within two club lengths, or anywhere behind, keeping the point of the unplayable lie on a line with the hole.

There's one big exception: If you are in one of those big, horrible, high-lipped bunkers that high-handicappers know they are unlikely to escape before supertime, if you choose to drop, you must keep the ball in the bunker. So here you've chosen to take a penalty stroke for an unplayable lie, and you can't even get out of the unplayable lie.

A better idea: Eliminate that exception for bunkers. One-stroke penalty and take a drop behind it.

GOING FOR THE GOLD AT DOWNSTREAM!!

This one provided a couple of very challenging days for most of us! We all got some "goldfish" and some gold wrapped chocolate candy... but only a few got the gold out of the casino! Then we had games, like 'diving', the team whose balls went in the water the most times (Nancy, Cheryl, Dottie) won this one. The gymnast's was the team (Sharon, Jeanne, Vicki S) that hit the most trees. Then we had beach ball volleyball ... Yep, you guessed it! This team (Jennifer, Nadine, Jan) were in the sand the most times. Each received very unique prizes specific to their game!

Then we had our low gross/low net winners!
