END OF YEAR TOURNAMENT AND POTLUCK

The weather was “iffy” at best and several adjustments had to be made in the final 2-3 days and even up to the last minute! The organizers stuck with their plan to do a Triple Threat format and 18 players (9 teams) showed their stuff! The weather did not deter them from wearing costumes and decorating their carts. Pictures of the winners are also on the website --- and there were some hilarious ones ---- especially one in particular ---the winner (see picture below)!!

What was not “iffy” was the potluck!! Lots of good food and plenty of desserts!

All in all, I believe everyone agreed that the GRAVE YARD GOLF TOURNAMENT was a fun event!

I also want to thank the LW Clapp Staff for being accommodating and helpful. We had to change venues and dates more than once and they were very understanding Thank you, Cody and Staff!

And the winners of the Triple Threat (3 holes each were played as a scramble, alternate shots and a Texas scramble):

A Flight			B Flight

Winner best costume: Lanie

Winner best cart: Amy and Barb W.

Most requested recipe: Jan S

POTATO SALAD

3 lbs. red potatoes, skins left on
2 bunches green onions, finely chopped, green section only
1 ½ TBSP celery seed
3 hardboiled eggs, chopped
Mayonnaise

Salt and pepper

Steam, boil or pressure cook the potatoes. While potatoes cook, chop the onions and the eggs. (For the onions I cut off the white bottoms and use the 6 or 7 inches of green directly about the white part.)

While potatoes are warm, chop or slice and immediately mix with the other ingredients and enough mayonnaise to coat evenly. Add salt and pepper to taste. Refrigerate to cool.

Enjoy!

NOTE: I'm doing this newsletter in the middle of the month so I can devote the final one of 2018 to the Year-end Dinner and Awards

The tournament organizers: Nadine, Jan and Vicki agreed that for our last event, we would do a Triple Threat Format. Little did we know how many challenges this format would present!! The biggest one, of course, was figuring appropriate pairings and handicaps. Thank goodness, we were able to recruit Cheryl, who saved the day for us! Her expertise and knowledge made it all possible. We hope everyone enjoyed it.
